Story: You leave your pack mules at camp while you head up river to check on some nearby trap lines. You just make it around the bend when you hear a commotion back at camp. You rush back to camp to find a pack of wolves attacking your mules. Get to your guns and have at 'em!

You will need: Two pistols loaded with 5 rounds each with hammer down over empty chambers in your holsters. A rifle loaded with 10 rounds, with hammer down over an empty chamber on the rest at B. A shotgun, empty with action open, on the rest at A, with at least 4 rounds on your person.

Directions: Start with both hands on the post. When ready, yell "Get away from my mules!"

At the Signal: Move to Position A and pick up your shotgun and load and knock down the four shotgun targets. Carry your empty shotgun to position B and set it down.

Pick up your rifle and starting on the left, engage the first target with 4 rounds, the second target with 3, the third target with 2 and the last target with one. Set the rifle down and ...

Move to position C and per your shooting style, engage the pistol targets in the same order as the rifle targets.

Take your firearms to the unloading table, muzzle up.
