Story: You have run off the Comanche and finally got your chores done. You get out of your wet clothes and enjoy a warm bath and are sitting by the fire when you hear another ruckus out at the henhouse. So, you grab a lantern and head back out into the rain to see what is going on. This time isn't the Comanche but a mamma coyote and her pups! Just as bad! The lead, feathers and fur fly!

You will need: Two pistols loaded with 5 rounds each with hammer down over empty chambers in your holsters. A rifle loaded with 10 rounds with hammer down over an empty chamber on the rest at A. A shotgun, empty with action open, on the rest at B with at least 4 rounds on your person.

Directions: Start with both hands on the lantern, held head high. When ready, yell "Damn coyotes!"

At the Signal: Hook the lantern on the hook and move to position A.

Pick up your rifle and engage the three rifle targets with a continuous Nevada sweep starting on the left, but this time double tap the center target each time you engage it. Carry your EAO rifle to B and set it down, then...

Pick up your shotgun and knock down the four shotgun targets. Set the shotgun on the rest and move to C.

Draw your first pistol and engage the three pistol targets with a Nevada Sweep starting on the left. Holster and repeat with your second pistol.

Take your firearms to the unloading table, muzzle up.
