

RRRC's Cowboys Welcome Back an Old Friend

By: Beer Slinger (Tom Bier)

The RRRC Cowboys had a special visitor at the April Bend of Trail Match. Rocky Lane, aka John Hightower, was in town visiting family and spent a beautiful Sunday shooting at his old range. Rocky Lane was a past Match Director for the Bend of Trail matches and moved to Florida a little over seven years ago.

30 other Cowboys and Cowgirls were on hand to enjoy shooting with Rocky at RRRC just as many of us old timers had every month several years ago. The shooters especially enjoyed shooting the aerial shotgun targets. As part of last year's SASS Virginia State Championship, RRRC received two shotgun poppers designed to flip a clay bird in the air when the cowboy shaped popper is knocked down. The builder, Mike Gibson Manufacturing (mgmtargets.com) donated the targets last year and we gave one of them away to a lucky shooter from South Carolina.
